FALL 2022 JOHN BARLEYCORN AWARD WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Dallas, TX -- The John Barleycorn Society of Spirits Writers & Marketers today released results for the Fall 2022 John Barleycorn Awards Taste and Marketing + Design competitions.

The John Barleycorn Awards is a different kind of awards program, created by writers and marketers to honor creative excellence in all aspects of the spirits industry - from formulating and distilling products - through innovative imaging, promotion, and sale of the products.

In the Fall 2022 competition, we received several hundred entries from throughout the spirits industry. Entries came from a wide range of distillers from huge conglomerates like Heaven Hill and Beam-Suntory to new up and comers like New Riff Distilling and Cedar Ridge Distillery. Brands ranged from old mainstays like Elijah Craig and Jim Beam to new products like Uncle Nearest Uncut & Unfiltered Straight Rye Whiskey, Barrell Craft Spirits Vantage, and High Bank Vodka.

Each Taste entry was blind-tasted and scored on a 100-point scale for appearance, aroma, taste, and finish. Marketing entries were judged on creative excellence. Awards were determined based on points.

A complete list of winners and comments from judges can be found at www.barleycornawards.com.

The Taste judging is under the leadership of noted author and spirits writer John McCarthy who oversees some of the world's top spirits writers, as well as runs the BarleycornDrinks blog. Judges include Leslie Sbrocco, Fred Minnick, Clay Risen, Jennifer Simonetti-Bryan, Robin Robinson, Wayne Curtis, Frank Caiafa, G. Clay Whittaker, Tony Sachs, Brad Japhe, Rachel DelRocco Terrazas, Amanda Schuster, Susie O., Jackie Summers, and Susan Reigler.

Many of the winning distillers and brands will be featured during the upcoming year on the John Barleycorn Society's weekly BARLEYCORNDrinks blog ([www.barleycorn Drinks.com](http://www.barleycorn Drinks.com)).

John Barleycorn Awards honors the innovative distillers, writers, marketers, designers who cultivate the fertile traditions of the spirits industry.
